

Transportation Federal Credit Union (TFCU) sponsors select pages on social media outlets that include, but are not limited to, Facebook, X, Instagram and LinkedIn. We participate as a way to interact with a community of people interested in discussing topics pertinent to TFCU's products, services and members. Please understand that non-TFCU postings to TFCU'S sponsored pages are not representative of the opinions of TFCU. Nor does TFCU confirm the accuracy of content posted by other users.

Do not include personal or account information in posts or private messages. TFCU will never ask for your Social Security number, account information, passwords or PINs via social outlets or email. We may also direct you to call a Contact Center Representative to provide further assistance and the best member service.

TFCU is not affiliated, nor responsible, for the security, privacy or any other operations of the social media outlet or service or third-party applications and advertising that may be connected to, or linked to by, them. We discourage clicking on links posted by other users, as these links may pose risk to your computer or take you to inappropriate sites. We do not compensate for suggestions or ideas posted on TFCU sponsored pages and we reserve the right to remove postings that are:

- Abusive, defamatory or obscene
- Fraudulent, deceptive or misleading
- In violation of any intellectual property right of another
- In violation of any law or regulation
- Promoting or advertising a business, service or entity unrelated to Transportation Federal Credit Union
- Otherwise inappropriate

Refer to the specific social media site outlet regarding their privacy and security policies.
